

MAGIC THE OBSCURE CRAFT OF DEVIL

The Devil himself taught magic to people. Initially he taught magic to a lot of people in the Middle East with the intention to enslave humanity to his nefarious will. Afterwards, these first tutees, the so-called satanic ferment taught their descendants. Magic was first taught by Satan to eastern world people and then to the rest of the world. The East has always been the center of magic and there lived the bigger magicians in history. Part of these people after satanic order, left and spread all over the world and taught the witchcraft to every race. This way magic became known separately to all nations. It lasted until today and will continue until the Second Coming of Christ when the devil and his forces will be defeated definitely.

First of all, let us determine what magic is. Magic is the satanic craft of producing certain phenomenon, through which the evil spirits of the devils act with objective purpose: the infiltration, the corruption and finally the loss of the soul, and also bring on the humans suffering, pain, diseases, catastrophes, disorientation and misery. Magic from the beginning of its appearance until today, continues to destroy humanity with the same intensity and mania all over the world. Magic is a big part of Satan's power that he assigns to some people under certain conditions for the enforcement of his will.

The term magic was used to determine the supernatural powers the Haldian magicians had and the other eastern nations. Persian and Egyptian magic were the precursor of the western world magic. The ancient Greek knowledge and thinking were the lead through which magic passed with variations to the west. It is known and proved that ancient Greece was the connective ring between the ancient Persian and Egyptian thought, from one end and the European in the other end.

In the course of time the Persian term "magi" which was associated with the Assyrian "mahhu" meaning magician or fortuneteller transformed to the Greek term "magos". From this Greek word derived the Latin "magus" and from this the English word "magic". The ancient Haldians exercised magic with zest and had developed a mixture of high and medium magic relating enchantments, demonology, fortune-telling and charms. From their side the ancient Greeks used variations of magic for the therapy of diseases. In ancient Rome magic was exercised mostly by rich people. The famous books of Sibyl had the most complex magic recipes of Romans.

Later on magic spread from ancestry to ancestry with inherited right and this way magic continued to bloom until today.

KINDS OF MAGIC

The kinds of magic are many and each has its objective goal. The basic kinds are white magic and black magic. They all come from the devil and intend to destroy humanity and The Creation. The branches of those two basic kinds are a lot and each one does something different. The principal branches of magic are:

1. Enchantment
2. Clairvoyance
3. Bard
4. Mystique (seducement)
5. Augury
6. Pharmacy

7. Demonic Amulets
8. Cloud chasers
9. Necromancy
10. Object making – (This is the worst of all of the above, which is widely spread in Greece)

OBJECT MAKING

Object Making is the worst kind of magic and the ones occupying with it are called infernals. The majority of the real magicians (sorcerers) know this craft and through it they cause people the worst damage. They use certain objects like nails, pins, soap, hair, personal stuff (of those they want to harm), candles, pieces of cloth, dead men bones, dust and more. The object is the sign that calls the demon who provokes the damage. This type of magic is very common in Greece, almost all of Europe, North Africa, Turkey and Middle East.

MAGIC CAN BE DEFEATED

Our society is passing through a serious crisis. Decadence, morals and customs are forgotten, and people turn away from God.
